

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

Conflict and Culture is a second-year course that explores the relationship between culture and conflict, examines cultural differences in response to conflict, as well as the nature and origins of conflict between and among cultures. Special attention is given to inter-ethnic conflict.