

Report of Senate Library Committee, April 2015

In 2014-15, the University of Winnipeg library continued its strategic planning initiative (begun the previous year) as well as addressing some of the most pressing needs identified in the early stages of that process. In particular, the library Space Planning Committee has been working on several ways to improve the usability of library space, particul